Qualifications for Participation

All legal and qualified voters of the Tenth Congressional District under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions or primaries encompassing their respective election districts.

In addition to the foregoing, to be in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, a person otherwise qualified hereunder shall not have participated in Virginia in the nomination process of a party other than the Republican Party within the last five years. A single exception shall be approved for a voter that renounces affiliation with any other party in writing, and who expresses in writing that he or she is in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and intends to support the nominees of the Republican Party in the future. A voter who utilizes the foregoing exception, and thereafter participates in the nomination process of a party other than the Republican Party, shall not have the benefit of the exception identified in this paragraph thereafter. The Tenth Congressional District Republican Committee will provide a copy of all signed renunciation statements to the Republican Party of Virginia, to be maintained for a period of five years.

Any voter who, subsequent to making a statement of intent, publicly supports a candidate in opposition to a Republican nominee is not qualified to participate as a member of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions, or primaries for a period of four (4) years.

Balloting

Balloting will begin at 10:00 a.m. and will end at 3:00 p.m., except that anyone in the registration line at 3:00 p.m. may continue the registration process.

In order to receive a ballot, the voter must present a valid, non-expired photo identification issued by the Commonwealth of Virginia, one of its political subdivisions, or the United States government.

A statement of intent, properly completed and signed by the voter, must be submitted at the time of registration. No ballot will be given to any voter who has not signed and submitted this statement of intent.

No absentee voting, proxies, or provisional ballots are permitted.

No registration fees are required for voting in this party canvass.

Votes will be counted only for those candidates whose names appear on the official ballot. No write-in votes will be permitted. Any ballot with more than one candidate name marked will be declared invalid.

Candidate Filing Requirements

Any person seeking election as the 10th District Republican Nominee for Member, U.S. House of Representatives must submit a completed and signed Official Filing Form, along with a non-refundable filing fee of $6,960.00 (six thousand, nine hundred and sixty dollars), paid by valid check or money order, not later than 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 1, 2014, to John Whitbeck, Chairman, 10th Congressional District Republican Committee, 106 Harrison Street S.E., Suite 300, Leesburg, VA 20175 (weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.) or 18931 Over Reach Court, Lansdowne, VA 20176 (evenings and weekends). Actual receipt is required. Postmarks will not govern. Incomplete or modified filing forms, and/or filing forms accompanied by an invalid check, will be returned, and the individual will be deemed to have not filed for candidacy. Mr. Whitbeck can be contacted at 703-477-8476.

The Official Filing Form can be downloaded from the Republican Party of Virginia website, www.rpv.org.

If not more than one person properly files for candidacy and is determined to be qualified, then that person is deemed to be nominated and the canvass will not be held.

Committees

Chairmen of the Rules, Nominations, Credentials, Tellers, and Logistics Committees are appointed by the Chairman of the Tenth Congressional District Republican Committee. These committee chairmen will appoint the members of their respective committees at their own discretion. The committees will meet prior to the canvass on the call of their respective appointed chairmen.

The canvass will be governed by (giving precedence as listed): the Republican Party of Virginia Party Plan, the Call of the Canvass, and the Rules adopted by the Tenth Congressional District Republican Committee.

The nomination will be decided by the plurality of the valid votes cast at all balloting stations. The vote will not be weighted.

Paid for and authorized by the Tenth Congressional District Republican Committee, John Whitbeck, Chairman
